

Nina Richmond, a singer's singer and consummate professional, has spent her life honing her vocal skills in diverse styles including big band, jazz, rhythm & blues, music theatre, pop and folk.

The featured vocalist in the Advocats Big Band, Fifth Element (jazz quintet), The Way Back (60s 70s 80s cover band) and the Tokyo Giants (R & B band), Nina is also well-versed performing in smaller combos like duos, trios and a cappella singing.

Her remarkable versatility has placed her in high demand as a performer at public and private parties, celebrations, festivals, corporate events, fundraisers, in night clubs and in studio recording. With her captivating vocals, Nina has graced the stages of such notable Toronto venues as The Old Mill, The Rex Hotel, 120 Diner, The Duke Live, Relish and at the Beaches International Jazz Festival.

"What can I say . . . the Advocats . . . this band, along with wonderful songbird Nina Richmond never ceases to amaze the crowd & what a CROWD they had last night at the Duke Live. Packed house. I'm sure people must have been sitting on the pool tables. It was wonderful! Well deserved appreciation for a night of Ella Fitzgerald. Thank you to all of you from all of us."

- L.K.

"Each time I listen to the performances of Fifth Element, I enjoy them more and more. You are a group of amazing individual musicians who manage to seamlessly blend traditional and contemporary tunes while the incomparable Nina weaves her lyrical spell! I look forward to many more chances to hear you."

- A.T

"I would like to offer a resounding thank you to Nina and Dale for their outstanding end of summer performance. The residents of Delmanor Wynford were treated to an evening of smooth jazz and swinging standards. Dale's solid musicianship along with Nina's bright vocals provided an all-around fantastic atmosphere. It was a pleasure to have the two of you with us, and I look forward to our next meeting."

- Sal Di Matteo, LivingWell Coordinator, Delmanor Wynford

